Governing Document/Reservation of Rights

Every effort is made to ensure that the degree requirement and course information, applicable policies, and other materials contained in the Stanford Bulletin are accurate and current. The University reserves the right to make changes at any time without prior notice. The Bulletin is in the form as it exists online at Stanford Bulletin (http://bulletin.stanford.edu) web site and ExploreCourses (http://explorecourses.stanford.edu) web site is therefore the governing document for the academic year 2020-21, and contains the then currently applicable policies and information. The University does not publish an official printed copy version of the Bulletin.

The University’s primary address is 450 Jane Stanford Way, Stanford, CA 94305–2004.

Your feedback is valuable. Send email to reg-webmaster@stanford.edu.

Stanford Bulletins from Earlier Years

See the Previous Stanford Bulletins (http://exploredegrees.stanford.edu/archive/#text) page for Bulletins prior to the current year.

Accreditation

Stanford University (http://www.stanford.edu/) is accredited by the Accrediting Commission for Senior Colleges and Universities of the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC), 985 Atlantic Avenue, Suite 100, Alameda, CA 94501; (510) 748-9001. In addition, certain programs of the University have specialized accreditation. For information, contact the Office of the University Registrar (http://registrar.stanford.edu).

Stanford University is committed to complying with the following requirements enumerated by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC) in its accreditation process:

- Core Commitment to Institutional Capacity

Honor Code and Fundamental Standard

Student life at Stanford is governed by the Honor Code and the Fundamental Standard. More information on these policies is available from the Office of Community Standards (https://communitystandards.stanford.edu) and in the Student Affairs (http://exploredegrees.stanford.edu/studentaffairs/#text-officestan) section of this bulletin.

Honor Code

1. The Honor Code is an undertaking of the students, individually and collectively:

   a. that they will not give or receive aid in examinations; that they will not give or receive unpermitted aid in class work, in the preparation of reports, or in any other work that is to be used by the instructor as the basis of grading;
b. that they will do their share and take an active part in seeing to it that others as well as themselves uphold the spirit and letter of the Honor Code.

2. The faculty on its part manifests its confidence in the honor of its students by refraining from proctoring examinations and from taking unusual and unreasonable precautions to prevent the forms of dishonesty mentioned above. The faculty will also avoid, as far as practicable, academic procedures that create temptations to violate the Honor Code.

3. While the faculty alone has the right and obligation to set academic requirements, the students and faculty will work together to establish optimal conditions for honorable academic work.

Fundamental Standard

"Students are expected to show both within and without the University such respect for order, morality, personal honor, and the rights of others as is demanded of good citizens. Failure to do this will be sufficient cause for removal from the University."

Registrar’s Office

The Stanford Bulletin is an online publication of the Office of the University Registrar (http://registrar.stanford.edu/), Stanford University.
