The University provides educational resources to assure that students understand the effects of alcohol misuse and know how to respond when they perceive others to be engaged in dangerous behavior.

Reckless drinking and encouraging reckless drinking are violations of University policy, and may be subject to disciplinary action. Extreme or repeated violations may result in dismissal from the University.

More generally, students are expected to make legal, healthy, responsible choices concerning their personal use of alcohol and the University supports them in this endeavor through education and other resources. The University sponsors activities and programs focused on students who choose not to drink or to drink lightly, as well as resources and services to assist students who need help for themselves or others related to alcohol use.

Authority, Application, and Enforcement

Responsibility for application of the Student Alcohol Policy resides with the Vice Provost for Student Affairs. The Office of Alcohol Policy and Education reports to the Vice Provost for Student Affairs and is expected to coordinate and implement alcohol programs. (The University’s Controlled Substances and Alcohol Policy is also applicable. The full text is contained at the Controlled Substances and Alcohol web site (https://adminguide.stanford.edu/chapter-2/subchapter-2/policy-2-2-8).)

The Stanford University Department of Public Safety enforces federal, state and local laws among students, other community members, guests and visitors.

Alcohol Policy Violations

The Office of Alcohol Policy and Education will work with the following offices to address violations of the University’s alcohol policy as determined by the specifics of each situation.

- The Office of Residential Education (http://studentaffairs.stanford.edu/resed) for undergraduate students, residential groups, fraternities and sororities
- Graduate Life Office (GLO) (http://glo.stanford.edu) for graduate students
- Student Activities and Leadership (SAL) (http://studentaffairs.stanford.edu/sal) for voluntary student organizations
- Department of Athletics, Physical Education and Recreation (DAPER) (http://www gostanford.com/school-bio/stan-administration.html) for student athletes and athletic groups
- Such other offices as are appropriate under particular circumstances

Violations may be referred to the Office of Judicial Affairs (http://judicialaffairs.stanford.edu) (for individual students) and the Organization Conduct Board (http://studentaffairs.stanford.edu/studentlife/ocb) (for student groups). The Dean of Student Life (http://studentaffairs.stanford.edu/studentlife) may take action as well in certain circumstances.

Getting Help: Resources Available to Students

Students have access to a variety of University resources (http://alcohol.stanford.edu/resources.html).

Additional University Regulations

- Students living in University residences sign a residence agreement (http://www.stanford.edu/dept/rde/shs/res_agree.htm) that outlines housing policies and expectations for conduct. Violations of the residence agreement can lead to loss of housing. (http://www.stanford.edu/dept/rde/shs/res_agree.htm)
Student Alcohol Policy

• All parties must be registered with the University, and availability of alcohol is regulated by party planning guidelines coordinated by the Office of Student Activities and Leadership. [http://studentaffairs.stanford.edu/sal/planning/party]

Other restrictions apply to particular circumstances

• Frosh Housing—Alcoholic beverages are prohibited at all-frosh house events in common area spaces.

• University Funds and the Purchase of Alcohol—No University funds or funds collected by the University may be used in a way that violates the alcohol policy. In student residences, house funds (funds collected by Student Financial Services or other University offices) may not be used to buy alcohol. Any decision to use student-collected funds to buy alcohol must be made lawfully, thoughtfully, fairly and in a way that respects the views of all students. Students must not be required to contribute to the purchase of alcohol.

• Dining Hall—Students may not possess or consume alcoholic beverages in Stanford Dining Halls during meal times and food service. University Dining staff can deny admission, access or meal service to anyone who is believed to be intoxicated by the Dining Management staff.

• White Plaza—Alcoholic beverages in White Plaza are prohibited.

• End of Quarter Period and Finals Week—No registered parties (with or without alcohol) can occur during the End of the Quarter Period (dead week) or Finals Week.

• Athletic Facilities—No alcohol is permitted inside Stanford athletic facilities public spaces during athletic events.

• Stanford Conferences and University Facilities—The University requires that event sponsors and student groups wishing to offer alcoholic beverages at their programs and events operate within state and local laws as provided by the Department of Alcohol and Beverage Control (ABC). Alcohol service is not allowed in classrooms.

• Admit Weekend—Stanford students are prohibited from providing, serving or in anyway making alcohol available to any prospective frosh (ProFro). All student groups/organizations and residences may host only alcohol-free parties or events during Admit Weekend. This specifically means that no alcohol is to be present, served or consumed at any student group/organization and/or dorm function during Admit Weekend.

• New Student Orientation (NSO) Period—At no time should any Stanford student provide, serve or in any way make alcohol available to any new, incoming undergraduate student (freshman or transfer). All undergraduate student groups/organizations and residences will host only alcohol-free parties or events during Orientation. This specifically means that no alcohol is to be present, served, or consumed at any student group/organization and/or dorm function during NSO.
